

lauren cameron pratt (NYC)

Lauren graduated from the Fashion Institute of Technology, NYC in 2006 with honors. She achieved a BFA in Advertising Design & an AA in Communication Design. After launching her BoyfriendBag™ Brand in 2007, Pratt was selected by the Cambridge Publication House as one of the 'Who's Who Among American Executive & Professional Women'. The collection landed sales with Patricia Field (S&TC) and was featured in Time Out New York, WardrobeWire, BlackBook, Twist, and Metro Magazine [Au]. Over the years, Pratt has independently designed for such brands as: Michael Lang [Woodstock], Wendy Diamond [Animal Fair], Mercedes-Benz Fashion Week, JetBlue, Elias Arts, Delta, Jay Coleman, Little Miss Matched, Deutsch, Revlon, Amex, Coach Realtors, Halstead, Hilton, Mitchum, Dillard's, Finally Famous Films, Cutter Productions and IndieFlavor. Her works have been featured in The One Show, CMYK Magazine and Lurzer's International Archive.

angel c garofalo (LA)

Angel is a new resident to Los Angeles, after living in NYC for over a decade. Angel studied FashionDesign at the Fashion Institute of Technology, NYC (1995-1999), earning a Bachelor of Fine Arts. As the Pioneer and Primary Developer of Skyfish Swimwear, she brings a unique perspective to the ever-changing world of fashion and design. Her professional career began in 1998 with a dual internship at ELLE Magazine and with fashion designer Efthemios Constantine. Garofalo went on to design for clothing and accessories brand Guess, where she was inspired to one day design her own fashion line. Angel has also worked for Fashion File Television as a production assistant, where she attended NY Fashion Weeks' most elite shows, such as Oscar De La Renta and Alexander McQueen. It was at these monumental showcases of top-tier design and innovation that Angel learned the paramount importance of quality and integrity — principles that guide her every decision in Skyfish Swimwear products.